Blind Dating at Happy Hour by Shaun Kempf

"Blind Dating at Happy Hour" takes a look at love and all its forms. We get to see the relationship struggles of the other patrons. From a young couple building their relationship to an established couple that finds their marriage on the rocks, this play asks if, indeed, love is blind. Each of the intertwined stories will keep the audience's attention and the jokes will keep them laughing in this wonderfully fun comedy.

Performances: Oct 26-29, Nov 2-5

2017 - 2018 Inaugural Season Shows

The Gifts of the Magi A Musical based on story by O. Henry Book by Mark St. Germain and music by Randy Courts

The story revolves around penniless newlyweds Jim, and Della as they seek to find the money to buy each other a Christmas gift. This sweet, charming and surprisingly funny musical takes place at Christmas time in New York City, 1905.

We meet several characters and discover the true meaning of the Christmas season. The Gifts of the Magi will warm audiences' hearts on a cold winter's night.
Performances: Nov. 30-Dec. 3, Dec. 7-10, Dec. 14-17

Steel Magnolias by Robert Harling

This southern based drama takes place in the north-western Louisiana parish of Chinquapin at Truvy's in-home beauty parlour where the women regularly gather. Newcomer to the town is Annelle, a shy, insecure hairdresser that joins the group. Although the main storyline involves Shelby, her mother M'Lynn, and Shelby's medical battles, the underlying friendship among all six women is prominent throughout the drama.

Performances: Feb 9-11, 16-18

In Time of Old Age by Gord Carruth

This show has been performed very successfully all over Canada. This will be the 3rd production of it in the U.S. The show is billed as – "Revenge is sweetest when least expected". Just when you think the parade has passed you by, life gives you another chance.

The Playwright will be attending this production.

Performances: March 16-18, 23-25

Arsenic and Old Lace by Joseph Kesselring

One of the best loved American plays of all time, Arsenic and Old Lace is set in the home of Abby and Martha Brewster in the early 1940's of Brooklyn, NY. Their nephew Teddy lives there, who believes he is Teddy Roosevelt. Add to the mix a very nervous but otherwise normal nephew Mortimer who keeps an eye on his aunts, Nephew Jonathan who shows up unannounced looking like he just stepped out of a horror movie, and you may just have more laughs than the audience can survive?

Performances: May 11-13, 18-20
