THE STORY- A tribute to the great English farces of the 1930's and 1940's, The Fox On the Fairway takes audiences on a hilarious romp, which pulls the rug out from underneath the stuffy denizens of a private country club. Filled with mistaken identities, slamming doors, and over-the-top romantic shenanigans, it's a furiously paced comedy that recalls the Marx Brothers' classics. A charmingly madcap adventure about love, life, and man's eternal love affair with... golf.

THE ROLES-

- Justin, 20's, offbeat, sweet, anxious
 - Louise, 20's, a waitress, a knockout, leggy, good-natured, a bit ditzzy who lives in her own world which is innocent and wonderful to visit
 - Pamela, 39, beautiful, tanned, sophisticated
 - Henry Bingham, 40's, executive director of Quail Valley Country Club, a bit on the stuffy side
 - Dickie Bell, 40's, executive director of a rival country club, full of himself who wears crazy loud sweaters
 - Muriel Bingham, 40's, Henry's wife, a bombastic woman who needs her "status" in society
- Justin and Louise are deeply in love and express it with a lot of physical passion.
